THE IMPENDING STRUGGLE.

Readers, another rubber; clubs trumps, the knave the best card; stakes small, and no partners allowed. As a matter of course, we must win, as the deal is ours.

The clearing of the decks which is now going on has fairly astonished the public. President Mitre has applied to Congress for power to mobilise the Correntino National Guard, just as if all the militiamen of the province were tending their flocks and herds and not a Correntino was to be found under arms from Curuzu Cuatia to the Paso de la Patria, whilst General Urquiza, with equal sangfroid, asks the Entreriano Legislature to authorise him to call out the Cossacks of the Uruguay, although it is notorious that General Jordan has this moment a well mounted and equipped army ready to check invasion at any quarter. Thus the farce of applying to Parliaments for these purposes is nothing more nor less than an appeal to the Legislatures to sanction the impending civil war.

That the Legislature of Entre Rios will grant whatever its Governor asks we have no reason to doubt; but that Congress will be governed by such a precedent we most unhesitatingly deny. and the bill introduced by Sr. Oroño so meets the difficulty that it is the general impression it will be passed, Yet there is a nervous feeling in every circle about this Correntino question; men of every experience pierce the cobweb politics which have led to the present difficulty, and the prevalent opinion is that, in our efforts to get rid of Mr. Caceres, whose name and fame throw odium on the really legal and proper side of the question, President Mitre and General Urquiza will play at the fable of the fox and the goat.

We insist that, although already much blood has been spilt in this senseless South American brawl, the minor characters have only as yet figured; the principals will, however, soon be at the footlights, and then the real fandango begins.

Of course, as foreigners, we eschew as much as possible meddling with these intensely political questions; but, as Entre Rios is at present peopled with our fellow-countrymen, and as we all have more or less an interest at stake in the preservation of peace in the country, we demand of President Mitre a peace policy at all hazards.

Who cares whether Caceres rules the roast in Corrientes or not, so long as we have peace in the River Plate. If the real object is to get rid of him, then why not buy him up, poncho, recado, and cocked-hat. His demand cannot be so extravagant that it would not be infinitely cheaper to pay him his price, than to set the country in flames, plunge the nation into civil war, damn the River Plate abroad, and irretrievably ruin it at home.

We refuse to believe the sinister reports so current, as to the real gist of the present 'embroglio.' President Mitre has given no cause to suppose that he would be a party to a miserable South American trick to plunge his country into war in order to hold power on the contrary, his whole policy, since he came into office, has been a struggle with party faction, the direct enemy of free Republicanism. We believe he retires from office with a heart and a-half fully sick of the ever-changing duties of his post.

That the National Government is about to declare war against Entre Rios, on account of the recent engagement at Basualdo, is equally false, since it must fully recognise the right of the Entre Rianos to drive back the Correntinos the moment the latter crossed the Entre Riano frontier.

What then are the motives which give rise to the over-weaning apprehension of all parties, respecting the real sequel of this business? Simply, that the long-mooted fight with Urquiza is at last at hand, and that we can no longer postpone an event which we are impotent to avert. Yet so profoundly obtuse are we in political lore, that, we confess, we can see no necessity whatever for this war. Positively, Argentine politicians would make us believe that we are going to fight the very man who, for aught we know yet, may be President or Vice-President of the Argentine Republic.

Gen. Urquiza has ruled his province since the installation of the present order of things with the firmness of a Cromwell. Entre Rios, since Pavon. has been the model province of the Argentine Republic, and has progressed as much, if not more, than any other province in the River Plate. The English estancieros who flock to Entrè Rios find there full and ample protection for life and property—and, save it be envy at such unexampled prosperity we are at a loss to discover the motive for the present hub-bub.

A war with Entre Rios is not a jest—it is not a mere question of profit and loss—but a reckoning of blood, and possibly the slaughter of thousands—it is, beyond all question, the greatest evil that could happen to this country at the present. Even though victors, we come out losers by such a struggle—and the policy of a Government which would fan the embers of a local disturbance into a civil war blaze, merits from an independent Press to be stigmatized and held up to public scorn—

> "Better to bear the ills we have,
> Than fly to others we know not of."

Whatever advantages are sought by the impending war, they can only be secured at the expense of public morality and the prosperity of the nation. It may be that the inextricable political complications which surround the question swamp the efforts of President Mitre's Cabinet to maintain peace, the President and his Ministers have to prove this, and convince the public that their policy is above suspicion, free from the charge of holding office for a few days and working by the piece.

The following note of ex-Governor Lopez speaks for itself:—

Corrientes, July 26, 1868.

To his Excellency the Secretary of State in the Department of the Interior.

Mr. Minister,

The open publicity of the act which upset the legal authorities of this province, will, of course, have been long since known to Y.E.; but the close imprisonment I have suffered since then, and up to the present, has prevented me from addressing the National Government to protest against the acts done in support of the revolution.

Your Excellency must also be aware, that under the most formal menaces, was wrung from me the reluctant resignation, with which the revolutionists sought to legalise their anarchical proceeding. Happily, if the resort to brutal force were not enough, under their vile tricks, we have the 13th article of the Provincial Constitution, which declares that 'constraint renders null and without effect."

The sedition, Mr. Minister, has been carried out, with the assistance of chiefs and officers of the National army, who were expressly despatched from Paraguay by General Gelly y Obes, to overcome General Nicanor Caceres, on whom had devolved the support of the legal authority.

Permit me respectfully to state my surprise that Y. E.'s Government should not have taken any steps to maintain order, and respect for the Correntino laws which was so gravely violated.

On the contrary, the National Government has entered into communication with the very parties who have usurped power in Corrientes, and who without foreign aid could never for a moment exist; large forces and a high functionary in the capacity of commissioner have been sent. These have only served to keep alive the rebellion, even at the cost of fraternal strife, whilst the commissioner never took into account that the first magistrate of the province to which he was accredited lay in prison under sentinel.

Such proceedings which assuredly do not belong to republicanism nor the rights of Federal States, nor of the general Constitution, fatally elated the daring of the revolutionist, and impelled them to legalise their acts. Thus we see them order elections to be held in the several departments to replace those members of the Legislature, who rather than recognize the rebels, refused to attend the sessions, for which they were conducted by the military as criminals.

Santo Tome, La Cruz, Paso de los Libres, Monte Caséros, Curuzu-Cuatia, Esquina, &c. which are the most important departments in the province resisted the revolutionary movement, and refused to recognize the new election.

All this must convince the general government that the presence of the commissioner and national forces is a serious obstacle to the re-establishment of order and of the supremacy of the Constitution in Corrientes.

Moreover, this intervention was not solicited by the only authority that could demand it; and it is with the double reason of the good of the province, the maintenance of tranquility and progress, and for the rights of the Federal state of Corrientes, that I come to protest before the Government of the Republic against the evils which the intervention augments, and the immediate withdrawal of which I demand.

The constituted authorities of Corrientes have all the necessary means to command respect and re-establish order, and only the imprisonment to which I was at first the victim could have prevented me from employing those powers which I shall put forth on the retiring of same commissioner.

Hoping that it may please Y. E. to order the immediate withdrawal of troops from the province, I shall proceed to place myself at the head of the provincial troops, and fulfil the sacred duties with which my countrymen have entrusted me. I desire that you will present this note to H. E. the President of the Republic, and receive my assurances of esteem.

God preserve Y. E.

EVARISTO LOPEZ.

GREAT PROPERTY SALE.

Mr. Pestalardo, the enterprising manager with whose name the Italian Opera in Buenos Ayres has for years past been identified, has just disposed of his properties, remnants, and musical library to the empresario of a new Opera Company in Montevideo. It was originally intended to get rid of these interesting existencies by public auction, and whilst Mr. Billinghurst was making a catalogue and preparing a speech, we had the privilege of a private inspection of the faded finery, which kindled in our minds so many pleasing if not altogether harmonious reminiscences. There, alas! huddled in a dusty corner, lies the would-be white, but still flowing drapery of 'Amina.' A pile of brigands' jackets conceals 'Nebuchadnezzar's' sword from view; while the dagger of 'Ernani,' the purse of 'Alfredo,' and the awful black veil of 'Norma,' are carelessly thrown together. Can this faded velvet be the regal train of 'Lucrezia?' scarcely; yet it still retains an air of voluptuousness; haughty if intruded on, caressing if attracted. Honest 'Crispin's' leather apron keeps close to 'Margerita's' jewels; wigs of all descriptions—long, short, scratch, bob, and flowing—are strewn about the floor. The gay flowers that enchanted 'Sibil' appear stiff and coarse; the manacles of the 'Captives of Babylon' are entwined round the magic sword of 'Mephistopholes.' All the dresses of the familiar heroes and heroines of the Opera are here: memory recalls the outward garments of the man; but where, oh! where, is the life within? Yet a little while another 'Alfredo' will press the admiring 'Traviata's' hand; applause upon applause will greet the thrills of his love inspiring theme; but who will think of him who last gave life to these dull rags, and who now hides his ruin from the light of day?

What are all these remnants of tawdry finery, these spangles and false jewellery? Are they called into requisition by the basest feelings of that unexplicable phenomenon the human heart? Would a tale of vice and utter immorality—such as 'Lucrezia'—be attractive without the attributes of innocence. Vice, in rags, is repugnant; but, decked in a rich brocade and a jewelled diadem, we bow the knee and follow in her train. But, why such thoughts? What if three murders, one suicide, and a little perjury form the plot of the admired 'Forza del Destino,' the accessories are good singing, fine clothes, and gay music. Let us, like 'Martha,' enjoy ourselves while we can. What if there be a little danger, so much the more excitement, and without excitement how could the female chorus singers have ever had the heart to sing in these faded and turned dresses—short or long they are all patched and limp—as angels, witches, peasants, or fine ladies their paraphernalia are all in disorder: not so their male companions; the trunk hose of one or other may want darning, but as a rule their slouched hats, long cloaks, and wine cups are all in order. The busy hands under whose care these disguises were made may well be proud of their work. The smilling 'Linda' shows the temper of 'Azucena,' if not pleased; 'Medea,' even though about to stab her children, would like a fuller skirt; the 'Daughter of the Regiment' is inconvenienced by a waist; 'Iona' clamors for more color in her too simple attire; while the demands of 'Glaucus,' 'Faust,' 'Maurico,' cum multus alius, are varied and incessant. Peace to them all!

Come forward the habiliments of the charming pages. Look on that silver fringed jacket, which graced the form of no less than nine bewitching women; four drew down the house, three were tolerated, and two were hissed. Here are the garments; but where are the noble figures? Take the jackets, oh! chapman in women's toys: forty reals each. What next, Pestalardo? The enchantress' wand used in the second act of the 'Ballo in Maschera,' is up for sale: take it Gelly, or thou' oh! victor Caxias. The gong of the mystic Druids; strike, ye powers that be, and let it echo from Colon to the Andes—"Guerra! Guerra!!" that everlasting chorus. Five paper dollars and it's yours!

THE "STANDARD" AFLOAT.

Martin Garcia—San Nicolas—Rosario.

On board the steamer Parana,
Off Rosario, Aug. 3, '68.

The sun rose yesterday over a cloudless sky, and just as it began to shed its golden rays over the summits of Buenos Ayres' steeples and cupolas, I awoke from a restless sleep, due as much to the not unnatural excitement which my approaching visit to Humaita gave rise to, as to the unpleasant, dreams that had haunted my rest in consequence of the dark forbodings of a fair and much esteemed friend who, the night before, had done her best to dissuade me from going where I was certain to be blown up; and, when she found I was not to be deterred had declared she would have a Mass said for the future repose of my soul. As I was hurrying down to the passengers' mole, no doubt, some worthy and reverend parde was singing a "De Profundis pro animâ Estandarti Correspondenti!"

On reaching the head of the mole I had, as usual, to run the gauntlet with vociferating boatmen and sulky peons, and after a narrow escape of having my toes crushed by a big box that was being landed at the foot of the steps, and then of being shoved into the water, I managed to secure a seat in a whaleboat, and shortly afterwards was walking the deck of the Parana. On introducing myself to Capt. Morse, I was received by him then, and treated ever after during our voyage, with that courtesy and amiable affability which characterise him and which has secured for him a well-deserved popularity on the line. The Parana is a splendid American-built boat, with abundance of accommodation for passengers and cargo—the latter we discovered much to our cost, because she carried so much freight as to delay us greatly in our voyage.

Out of upwards of 60 cabin passengers, the only one I met bound for the same destination as myself was my friend W., who I was very glad to secure as a companion. The Tribuna, I see, announced in its yesterday number that a friend of theirs was going and would be able to bring back a full account of Humaita—but I should think this party has changed his mind, since among the whole crowd of passengers I have been unable to detect anyone bearing about him the Editorial stick. A great portion of the passengers have landed here, and several are bound for Corrientes and the intermediate ports. The taste for pleasure-trips has yet to be formed in these countries—where the dollar worship holds supreme sway over men's minds, and all the moments dedicated to what exclusively contributes to the elegancies and the ornamental part of life, are deemed a sinful waste of time.

At ten minutes to eleven, the mails having been duly delivered, the falua of the Captain of the Port shoved off, and we weighed anchor. Want of sufficient water obliged us to miss the lovely scenery amid the Palma islands, and to steer for Martin Garcia, entering the Parana by the Guazu. Besides the heavy cargo, a head wind and a strong tide against us helped to retard our progress, and we came abreast of Martin Garcia only at 3.25. The channel, on its western side, is narrow (less than half a mile in breadth). The island itself is small, but from its position is undoubtedly the key of the Parana and Uruguay rivers, commanding as it does the entrance to both these important arteries, and may some day become a second Humaita! At present, it boasts very imperfect fortifications, of which we got a very fair view from the deck of the steamer. There are four or five redoubts by the water's edge, some of them in ruins, and all without guns. On a large battery about a hundred yards from the beach, which commands the southern extreme of the channel, I counted ten guns; and in another battery at the top of a knoll, looking north, I descried through the glass three guns. The barracks consist of three brick built cottages in a square enclosed by a wall and have a respectable appearance from a distance. In the vicinity are scattered about over a dozen mud ranchos, and we saw a good many cattle and horses grazing. A boveda, building in the highest point of the island appears to be the powder magazine. Most of the stone used in Buenos Ayres comes from this small island, and we passed close to some quarries which appear as if they could supply stone enough to pave the whole province of Buenos Ayres. Sarmiento is criticised for having once mooted the idea of fixing the capital of the Republic in Martin Garcia. If ever he did say anything of the kind I myself believe that he must have meant that sooner than allow the capital question to remain unsettled it would be preferable to take it to Martin Garcia. And indeed anybody who impartially looks at this very knotty question cannot shut his eyes to the utter necessity there is for its being settled once for all.

By the present most objectionable arrangement, the National Government is only allowed to remain on sufferance, and has no certainty that some fine day the Provincial Government may not take into its head to bring under Mr. Billinghurst's hammer the very Government-house, where the affairs of the nation are transacted. Congress itself is surrounded by a fictitious atmosphere, and, under the pressure of a local system, enjoys neither the independence or the respect due to it, and hence, session after session passes and nothing is done. The co-existence of two sovereign powers in the same locality is an absurdity, which not even its having, to a certain extent, been shown practicable by experience palliates, and the sooner it is brought to a solution the better will it be for the general interests of the Republic, even though the final settlement should be prejudicial, in individual instances, to private interests. It is the very question that Sarmiento, in taking office, will have to turn his attention to, and those who are acquainted with his clear-sightedness and energy, feel confident that he will not be long in obliging Congress to adopt a final resolution in the matter.

At 5.15 we entered the mouth of the Guazu, and, as the opposite shores come nearer, the scene, though not striking, is agreeable from the change. As the day had been cloudless, so was the night, and a full moon shed its silvery light over the broad expanse of water, which reflected its rays like a mirror.

This morning, at 8 a.m., we were abreast of Obligado, and at noon reached San Nicolas, which has a not very inviting appearance from the waterside. At its northern extremity, crowning an eminence in a headland, is a small dismantled fortress which was raised at the time of the battle of Cepeda.

Several craft, with their sails full set coming down the current and before the wind, passed us yesterday like beautiful phantoms: this morning one particularly attracted our attention, having a black flag flying from her mainmast. We were informed she was taking down wounded from the war to Buenos Ayres. It seems strange they should not secure their being conveyed by steamer.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

No arrivals yesterday morning. A few hours rain stops all the steamers in the river. The steamer 24 de Mayo was looked for anxiously with fresh advices, but to noon not a vessel of any description had entered port Nevertheless the city was filled with all sorts of extravagant rumours concerning Entre-Rios, General Urquiza, and the Correntino troops.

After all the noise made as to who is "Orion," the Tribuna correspondent, and who is "Milo," we think it our duty to set the public right on the matter; the two cognomens belong to one, and the same person, Mr. Myles O'Ryan, a distinguished Irishman resident in Montevideo.

We salute our colleague the Tribuna on the occasion of its 15th anniversary. It stands at the head of the River Plate press, having the largest circulation, and as for news the sheet is now so large that subscribers have hardly time to read the paper through in the morning: possibly one of the surest proofs of the state and condition of a country are its newspapers. The Tribuna makes a good and creditable show for the River Plate, and we wish our big colleague many happy returns of the present anniversary—

Yesterday we received advices from various points of the camp, and we learn with satisfaction that it has rained copiously in all directions: out at the Fortin de Areco the whole country is flooded. We suppose it has also rained in Santa Fé.

As will be seen by a reference to our advertising columns Mr. Nicholson has opened his new educational establishment in the central and spacious premises Tacuari 85, where he devotes his undivided attention to the education of a limited number of alumni. Mr. Nicholson's well deserved popularity as a teacher needs no encomium from us. The many years that he laboured as Principal of the English Seminary, Suipacha 20, and the many well educated youth that his establishment furnished the mercantile firms of this and the neighboring Republic, bespeak for him a large share of public patronage. To those parents who seek an educational home for their boys, the English Seminary offers unique advantages. We heartily congratulate Mr. Nicholson on the very flattering success which we are informed he has already received in his new enterprise.

We have to thank Mr. Rodriguez for a sample of the maize and cocoa-nut upon which the Humaita garrison subsisted for several months. The maize is greatly deteriorated by the "gorgojo" or weevil.

Yesterday we received the 7th number of the Farmers Magazine, as usual full of the most interesting matter, which we shall review at our leisure.

The steamer Lujan has brought another splendid consignment of silver from the properous mining works of Messrs. Klappenbach, at La Huerta; thus in three weeks we have received from this establishment about 1200 marks silver and from advices at hand the supply of quartz, &c., is each day becoming more abundant there; are at the works at present two colpas of metal, one 25 arrobas, and the other 40 arrobes.

The funeral of Mr. Rorison, engine driver on the Southern Railway, took place yesterday. It was numerously attended by the mechanical staff of the railway. Deceased was about two years and a half in this country.

At one p.m. the steamer from the Uruguay arrived, bringing passengers and mails. In the Entreriano newspapers we find nothing to corroborate the rumours afloat. In one paper we read of another revolution in Corrientes, but as yet know nothing to authenticate this.

The Pacific steamer from Liverpool was looked for in Montevideo yesterday, with dates from England to the 15th July. Possibly, she will make her appearance to-day.

We notice that, on the Northern Railway, Mr. Crabtree has introduced a new code of charges for telegraphic messages. The list of charges can be found at our office.

At Mr. Chapeaurouge's estancia near San Antonio de Areco, we learn with pleasure that there are at present some 33 squares under wheat, sown by a drill; it takes about one cuartilla per square; the crop is now all up, thick, and looks very well.

Our subscribers who suffer from dyspepsia will have read with great interest the advertisement of our chemical cousin, W. Cranwell, 30 Rividavia, in regard to the Pepsine Lozenges. We can assure them it is a bon fida preparation.

Anyone who knows the purlieus of the Liverpool Exchange, or of the Strand between Temple Bar and Waterloo-bridge in London, must have refreshed themselves in the hot summer days with Sainsburg's iced drinks from the fountain. We are glad to be able to state that, within a week hence, Mr. Albert Philips, the hero of the Coliseum, intends opening, at No. 28 Rivadavia, an establishment entirely novel in Buenos Ayres, and equal in every respect to the mineral water depots in the cities of the United States and Great Britain. Attached to the premises there is to be a reading room, where all the comforts of a club will be attainable in the evening.

The Brazilian gunboat Tacuari came in yesterday at noon from Uruguayana, it was though at first she brought some news of importance, but nothing transpired.

Passengers from the Uruguay per steamers Rio de la Plata assert that there is a general arming going on Entre Rios, and people up there judge from the preparations, that war with Buenos Ayres is inevitable; yet none can well assign the cause.

Mr. Guimaraens has arrived down from Humaita, he spent three days in the fortress going over everything and gave some interesting details on on change yesterday.

Great complaints are made about the interruption of trade at the Barracas Bridge, caused by the laying of the rails in the street. At times, carts, bullocks, and horses come to a dead lock; and it is wonderful that no accidents occur. The engine runs right up to the bridge—but the residents about there think the railway company ought to have a private bridge of its own, which would lessen the inconvenience.

It was rumored yesterday afternoon that a petition to Congress praying for a strict and unequivocal peace policy as regards the affairs of Corrientes and Entre Rios, is about to be sent round for signature. This is consequent, of course, on the alarming rumors afloat of a war with Urquiza.

A certain party is at present shipping splendid hotel furniture, billiard-tables, &c., for Humaita, to fit up a new hotel about to be started there under the auspices of an enterprising Frenchman.

The Directing Committee of the Philharmonic Society have requested us to inform its members that the annual meeting for electing the new Committee for the ensuing year, will take place to-morrow evening (Monday) at seven o'clock precisely, in the Coliseum. As this meeting will be of considerable importance to the welfare and management of this flourishing society, it is to be hoped that all members will attend. At the same time, members are informed that there will be no practice on to-morrow evening, until the following Monday, in consequence of the said general meeting.

We have seen a private correspondence from Paraguay, which says:—"The garrison of Humaita had munitions for twelve months, all of which they left behind them in their retreat. I have visited the great deposit, which served as a workshop for the manufacture of all sorts of fusés, cartridges and clothes; adjoining were the arsenals and armory. The houses are small but very handsome, each having its little garden. The church must have been a splendid building, as, notwithstanding the universal destruction, there are still traces of former grandeur. The barracks and soldiers' quarters are capable of holding some 20,000 men. Amidst this imposing display of military strength and order, what most surprised the bold invaders was the frequent signs of talent and ingenuity, in the shape of chairs, tables, and other household requisites. On evacuating the fortress the garrison fled to an island in the Chaco, where, after refusing to surrender, the Brazilians began to decimate them with shot and shell. Across the lake they have positively got no means of escape, except in canoes made of hide, capable of holding ten men; still they refuse to surrender, and the appearance of one of these frail skiffs on the lake is greeted by a deadly broadside from the fleet."

THE FALL OF HUMAITA.

ORDER OF THE DAY—"SUCCESS TO THE BRAZILIAN EMPIRE—VICTORY TO THE ALLIED ARMY."

July 25, 1868.

The famous fortress of Humaita is in our hands with its 200 pieces of cannon of various calibre, its vast deposits of war munitions, arms, and clothes, with provisions enough for 20 or 30 days.

Our glorious green banner now floats over the battlements, whilst beneath, the air is laden with the sweet strains of our National Hymn, intoned by numerous military bands, to the accompaniment of a thousand voices giving vent to their long-pent-up patriotism in enthusiastic 'vivas.'

The seven chains with which the Paraguayan tyrant vainly sought to stop the passage of the river, have been burst asunder by the single mandate of our gallant chief the Marquez Caxias.

The reconnoitre effected by H.E. on the 21st March upon the frowning lines of Tuyuti convinced the enemy the all but invincible Quadrillateral must yield to our indomitable bravery and determination, as in truth it did two days afterwards, the enemy abandoning the position as we came up.

Strange to say, the other grand bulwark of despotism has fallen in the same way. This time, thanks to the energy and determination of our Commander, the advantages of retreat have not been obtained by the enemy, who, to the number of four thousand, are now shut up in the peninsula; all of these must either die or surrender.

Six war steamers, under the command of the Baron del Pasage, bombarded Timbo on the night of the 21st, moving thence to the Tebicuari and San Fernando, whence they returned, after shelling Lopez's encampment, with the joyous tidings that no obstacle remained in the river.

Soon, therefore, we shall all be in the capital, and meet the tyrant foe in his own quarters, from which he will have no retreat.

Then, with the blessing of God, we shall obtain that complete victory over ignorance and brutal despotism which, in the interests of outraged humanity, liberty, and civilisation, we have so long and disinterestedly fought at a loss of blood and treasure.

Success to the Empire of the Holy Cross!

Long life to the Allied Squadron.

WRECK OF SCHOONER ELIZABETH.

The captain and crew of the Dutch schooner Elizabeth, lost off Maldonado, have favored us with full and reliable particulars.

The vessel loaded a cargo in Buenos Ayres for Europe, and called at Montevideo on her way down the river. She left Montevideo on the 6th of July, and was wrecked next day off Maldonado. So rapidly did she sink that the crew had enough to do to save themselves in boats, where some sails were hastily thrown; with this exception everything was lost.

Mr. B——, who was acknowledged by the captain as consignee, forthwith notified the Consul of the Low Countries in Montevideo, asking instructions. The Consul replied without loss of time; but the captain, not caring to wait longer than appeared to him necessary for due deliberation and transmission, sold the wreck on his own account and risk to some one in Maldonado for $f.700, and considering the cargo lost it seems he left it to the disposal of the purchasers.

The Consul protests against this illegal act, declaring the sale by the captain null. The Maldonado authorities could not issue the necessary documents, not only on account of the captain being unknown to them, but, still more, without the intervention of a third party.

Such is the present state of the case, as laid before the tribunals by the purchasers, who have already paid the first instalment on the stipulated sum, and are unwilling to relinquish the bargain.

The extreme readiness of the master in believing the ship lost, saving himself, forsaking the cargo, and, after all, selling the whole lot, is rendered still more suspicious, by the fact that some experienced disinterested parties write from Maldonado that the Elizabeth is anchored there, and has made but little water.

At the request of the Consuls a committee of inspectors, formed of three experienced shipmasters, a carpenter, and port official, proceeded to examine the ship on the 14th ult.

On the deck they were met by Dn. José Rebolledo, to whom they explained the object of their mission, begging his assistance to get them a free passage through the vessel. This he peremptoriiy refused, on the grounds that he had bought the ship and cargo, and putting a sailor on the hatchway, he theatrened to send ashore for help in case they dared to enter the cabin. The Captain of the Port did not insist, and Mr. B——, rather than increase the complications, by calling in the authorities, retired to await further instructions from his Consul—"Telegrafo Martiimo."

THE FALKLAND ISLANDS.

SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

Sir—

I have the honour to report to your Excellency, that, in accordance with your instructions I embarked on board the "Foam" on the 17th of April last, and proceeded to the West Falklands, where I arrived on the 20th, and land at White Rock, and estimate the probable number of cattle there and towards Tamar Harbour to be about 700. Round the coast the camp is dry, and I should say well adapted for sheep farming; on the higher ground the grass is of a white, long, coarse nature, not a fattening description, and only valuable as a winter food when the shorter and more nourishing grasses are covered with snow.

On the 21st, I proceeded from White Rock Habour in a south-west direction for about 24 miles skirting Manybranch Harbour and leaving the Six Hills to the right; the whole of this district is good for sheep, dry and well sheltered. All round Manybranch, as far as the eye could reach, herds of wild cattle were to be seen, taking line from Port Howards to the Warrah River, I estimate their number to be about 3,000.

Beyond the first stream running westward (which is a branch of the Warrah) the camp has been burnt, in consequence of which I did not see so many animals as about Manybranch, at the same time I notice a change in the character of the country, the hills are more abrupt, the streams more frequent, and the long white grass takes the place of the shorter and more succulent ones.

The tracks of wild cattle are very deep and much worn, showing the animals frequent this district more in the winter than the summer.

On the 23rd, owing to the snow and our horses being tired, did not move camp; but I examined as well as I could the locality of our tent, which was under Mount Edgeworth, and on the bank of the Warrah, which river is of a considerable size even here. The cattle are not so numerous as they are to the north-east, but of a much finer breed, the cows being much larger and better shaped; my not seeing so many was owing I think to the unsettled state of the weather, and and their having most likely taken shelter in the deep valleys.

On the 24th, my time being limited to one more day only, I returned to White Rock [where I left the "Foam" undergoing repairs] by a different track, more to the northward, skirting the Mount Edgeworth range and following the river till it joins the sea, thence round Port Purvis; in the neighbourhood there appears to be a great number of cattle, about, 2,000; but I do not think they cross the Mount Edgeworth range of hills into the country about Byron Sound, and from what I can hear they have not as yet reached beyond Hill Gap. Therefore from what I have seen and heard I should estimate the total number of wild animales on the West Falklands to be about 5,000.

I have, &c.

INTERESTING FROM MEXICO.

NOVEL DOCUMENT.

Papers found in the Imperial Archives—Appeal of an American Fanatic to Maximilian.

Mexico, April 25, 1866.

I send you the following communication found among the papers at the Palace, evidently written by a crazy person, and yet it predicted "the end":—

Washington, D. C. Jan. 22, 1866.

To His Highness Maximilian:—

Sir—I send you this to let you know that if you do not leave Mexico by the first of March with all your troops, it will be my duty to bring you here and chain you with Jeff Davis and some of his associates, in the Capital, as it is the will of God. I shall do it, for I want you to understand that I am only an instrument in the hands of God for the purpose of doing His will on earth as it is done in heaven, and turn this world into a heaven by chaining all devils that are not disposed to obey christian laws. The reason I send you this is I have my order direct from God himself. He tells me that you are wrong in taking the position you have now. Sir, to let you know who I am, I will tell yow. I am the conqueror of the rebellion. I have laid all the strategic plans for the army. I was President Lincoln,s private secretary of war, and also the secretary of God and a spiritual medium. I gave unto President Lincoln all the plans in full for ending the war and in such a way to one all wars forever, by chaining all devils. I presume that you will understand that when we get Jeff Davis and his mock Congressmen, General Lee, James Buchanan and some of the piratical captains chained in the capital, and all guerillas and other desperadoes with a ball and chain on their leg, and set them to work digging down mountains and making roads, I am to be crowned as lord of all, and thus by taking Queen of England, whom I am engaged to, for a wife, we unite England and America together.

Now, sir, if you are a rational man instead of a crazy devil like Jeff Davis you can see the situation you will be placed in if you remain in Mexico after the 1st of March, 1866, for you may depend upon it I will bring you here and chain you with Jeff Davis and his associates, for I can do as God directs me when I am lord of all; and you must know that when we unite England and America both will come against them, and if the monarch does not lose his head or his life we shall put him in the lunatic asylum and chain them with Jeff Davis and his accomplices in crime. By this I hope you will be rational enough to see the necessity of retiring with all your forces to France and let the Emperor know that he must be satisfied with what power he has, and that it is contrary to the will of God and all true Christian people for him to assume the power of controlling Mexico; also that he may give up the idea of ever getting possession of England, that he cannot keep any of his plots and plans hid from me, as I am a a spiritual medium and in communion with God, and he makes known to me all the plots and plans of all devils and also the means of conquering them and bringing them into subjection to his will, which he compels me to do. Thus you see I am forced by the Almighty Power to do all I am doing. I cannot do anything contrary to his will. Take heed before it is too late. I have conversed with many thousands of people on all these things, including about two-thirds of our army, and all agree with me and promise to aid me. Yours, very respectfully.

SAMUEL CORNELL.

SMALL CHANGE.

Buenos Ayres, July 31st, 1868.

By a long train of reasoning on national finance and political economy, you would doubtless be able to demonstrate to us how prejudicially an excess of paper money reacts upon commerce; and without particularly realizing to ourselves the consequences we should acquiesce. I think however, many of us would prefer to incur an occasional but temporarily-felt, though more serious inconvenience to the continuance of a slight but ever recurring one, which falls most heavily on those least able to bear it.

I allude to the scarcity of the fractions, of the dollar, I do not know whether the Government has withdrawn any of the copper money, that served this purpose, from circulation, but, I do believe it to be very insufficient in quantity, and I believe that many would much prefer receiving the change out of their small purchases, in paper to receiving none at all. In the present state of things change is scarcely ever given out of a dollar for the smallest articles.

Could not the Government give us more copper réals or at least paper ½ and ¼ dollar notes; if it has any scruples about increasing the amount of paper money, it might withdraw a few of the large notes from circulation.

E. B. C. H.

A GRIEVANCE.

77, Piedad, August 8, 1868.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen—

Allow me, through your valuable paper, to call the attention of Mr. Crabtree to the very disgraceful state of the approaches to the station at the 25 de Mayo.

This morning I wished to leave a letter there, and, having tried to approach the building, was compelled to return without affecting my purpose, such was the depth of mud on all sides. Surely, there must be some peon about the place who, in a few minutes, could sweep a path.

I remain,
Your obedient servant,
TURMEAU, The Teaman.

STRIKE AT THE SOURCE, NOT AT THE SYMPTOMS.

Remember that symptoms are the evidences of nature's conflict with disease. They tell us that the animal powers are fighting the concealed poison. Aid and reinforce them with that genial and miglity restorative, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, and the result cannot be doubtful. No disorder, not organic, can resist such an alliance. The enemy is in the veins. There this great detergent will find it and thence expel it. That done, the cough that indicates consumption, the sores that denote the presence of scrofula, the terrible suffering of body and mind which accompany a diseased stomach and an unnatural condition of the bowels disappear. This pure and potent vegetable and antiseptic tonic and alterative cleanses, regulates, and invigorates the whole internal organization, and the cure is complete.

ON 'CHANGE.

August 8, 1868.

Ounces,	$460
Sovereigns,	122½
Patacons,	25
National Bonds,	46¼

Bonds are beginning to droop. Two English brokers, who are known to be large holders, commenced to sell to-day, and although prices gave way only a ¼, still people who invest or speculate in these securities, are frightened at the political aspect of affairs.

There seems to be a black cloud over Entre Rios, and a terrible storm brewing. Some parties from the Uruguay were on 'Change to-day, who arrived, per Rio de la Plata. Their account seemed to increase the general disquietude, and the great hopes of both brokers and merchants, are centred on the extreme prudence of President Mitre; but all the dealers have taken fright, and the pernicious effects of civil war are again beginning to tell on trade.

The cash sales of Bonds to-day amounted to 134,000, opening at 46½, selling down to 46¼, and closing at 46½. In the liquidation-room the sales were unusually heavy.

On time the sales were limited: For August 31st, 86,000, at 46⅝, and for September 30th, 72,000, at 47⅛. Total sales of the day, 319,000.

The Bonds of the Buschental Loan will be amortised on Monday.

Exchange closed for the packet at 49½. The total amount drawn is not to say heavy. Several parties, however, counted on taking Brazilian Treasury drafts in Montevideo; but, strange to say, that for this packet no drafts will be drawn.

In the produce markets nothing doing, owing to the state of the weather.

There was nothing from Montevideo to-day, either by mail or telegraph. A further fall, however, in paper money is expected, as gold is in demand.

We heard on 'Change that the prize, in the shape of yerba, falling to some of the officers who first entered Humaita, amounts to about 150 ounces gold per officer.

In freights nothing doing.

The Chilian cargo, ex Arancano, has been sold. Wheat, 7 62; flour is being retailed at 9 1/2 to 9½.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC GERMAN SCHOOL.

For several years there exists in this City, at No. 118, CALLE LIBERTAD, a CATHOLIC GERMAN SCHOOL, which, through the zeal and proficiency of the Masters, has given the most satisfactory results.

The Pupils are charged only a small sum Monthly, and, according to the Rules, the Poor are Educated Free.

The School receives no aid whatever from the Government or the Municipality, being supported only by a number of Resident Catholic Germans. Its financial position, therefore, is not such as could be desired, and, in order to improve it, a RAFFLE has been got up, the Prizes being given by various well-wishers. We hope that our Friends—Lady Friends in particular—and all supporters of Education will not withhold their aid. For this philanthropic purpose, several Articles of Handiwork have already been presented; and a Committee has been formed authorised to receive Donations, as well as to Sell the Tickets. They will duly notify the days for Exhibiting the Prizes, and for the Raffle.

The Committee consists of:—Señoras Rosario Gallino de Diekelmann, 155, Salta; Josefina Klappenbach de Scharff, Cordoba, between Cerrito and Libertad; Mercedes Ortiz de Schaty, 188, San Martin; Maria Dönnewald, 197, Paraguay; and Juna Brüggemann, 18, Libertad.

GREAT AUCTION SALE,
BY BALBIN AND PLOWES
OF RAMBOUILLET IMPERIAL RAMS.

On MONDAY, the 18th day of August, at Eleven o'Clock precisely, Messrs. BALBIN and PLOWES will Sell by Auction, without Reserve, at their Auction Rooms, No. 19 CALLE PERU, 40 Magnificent Rambouillet Imperial Rams, bred by Wilfred Latham, Esq., at his celebrated Cabaña de los Alamos. These Rams, at the day of Sale, will be 15 or 16 months' old, with a growth of wool corresponding to that age, less the lambs' points, which were shown last Spring, so that, in effect, they will have on them from 13 to 14 months' growth of wool.

The unrivalled Breed of Mr. Latham's Rambouillet Imperial possesses, as will be seen on inspection of the Rams, in the highest degree a combination of all the most desirable qualities—viz., closeness of pile, length, strength, and firmness of shape, and remarkable weight of fleece; together with a well-defined and beautiful type, neat, broad-fronted, and well-woolled heads, with well-set horns; handsome neck folds and collars; wool thickly covering the hellies and down the legs; deep, weighty, and level carcases on short legs; broad and strong over the loins,—in fact, every condition of beauty, vigour, and profitableness.

The special attention of those Gentlemen who have heretofore dedicated themselves to breeding or refining with the Negrette race is called to these Rams, which possess those qualities and characteristics that mark them as the only type in the country—the true Rambouillet Imperial—which present suitable conditions for crossing on Negrette, or fine Negrette-Mestiza Ewes. Such breeders will obtain from this stock progeny retaining trueness of type and compactness, while attaining to much greater bulk of carcase, very much greater length of staple and weight of fleece, and remarkable brightness and soundness of wool. Also the attention of those Gentlemen who have been breeding from the various French Merino races, which pass in this country under the name of Rambouillets, such as the Gilberts, Cugnots, and others, is especially called to these Rams. They will find in them that beauty and trueness of type which is the specialité of the Imperial Rambouillet, par excellence. Those Gentlemen will obtain by the use of these Rams great advantage in quality and length of wool, as well as in compactness of form and levelness.

On the same Day Messrs. Balbin and Plowes will Sell by Auction, and without reserve, 10 two-year-old Rambouillet Rams from the same Cabaña—large, deep-framed, wonderfully solid, of remarkable vigour and hardness.

Their fleeces,—fine, long, and close,—will be of about one year's growth on the Day of Sale.

Also, by Private Contract, two beautiful Type Sires, two and three years' old, with nine to ten months' growth of wool, which Mr. Latham is enabled to dispose of in consequence of a redistribution of families, and a classification which he has deemed it advisable to make so as to provide against all possible danger of incestuous breeding? It will be remembered that one of these sires was exhibited last season, and was pronounced by the most competent judges to be marvellously perfect. They have only served a few picked ewes, and are models of vigour and compactness.

☞ The Rams will be on View at the Auction-rooms on and after Wednesday, the 10th day of August. 239,xp,jy30

REMATE.

POR BALBIN Y PLOWES—Gran remate de carneros Rambouillet—En su casa Calle del Peru No. 19.

El Martes 18 de Agosto a las 11 en punto de la mañana, a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado, se rematarán 40 magníficos carneros Rambouillet criados por el Sr. Lathan en su afamada Cabaña de los Alamos.

Estos carneros el dia de la venta tendran de 15 a 19 meses con la lana correspondiente a esa edad menos las puntas de lana que faeron trasquiladas en la primavera, debiendo reputarse por este la lana que actualmente tienen de 12 a 14 meses.

Esta cria sin rival de Ramboillet Imperiales del Sr. Lathan posee como se puede averiguar viendo los carneros, la continuacion mas completa de las condiciones mas requeridas, a saber: tupidez al ura, fuerza y finura de lana, con vellon de un peso estraordinario: unido todo esto a un tipo hermoso y bien determinado, mucha lana en la cabeza, enchura de frente entre las aspas siendo estas bien formadas, rollos hermosos en el pescuezo, lana tupida en la barriga y en las patas, poseliendo ademas las cualidades de ser anchos y fuertes de lomo y riñones, en fin reunen todas las condiciones de hermosura, de vida y de provecho.

Se llama la atencion especial sobre estos carneros a todas aquellas personas que hasta hoy se han dedicado a la cria o cruza de la raza Negrette, pues poseen aquellas calidades caracteristicas que les señalaban como el tipo especial en este pais [el verdadero Ramboillet Imperial] que presenta las condiciones adecuadas para la cruza con Negrette, si ovejas finas de Negrette mestizas.

Los criadores que obtengan padres de los que se van a rematar tendran con este cruze un prolo que perpetuará su tipo verdadero.

Ese mismo dia estarán en venta particular dos hermosos padres tipo, de 2 o 3 años de edad, con 9 a 10 meses de lana de los cuales el Sr. Lathan puede disponer a consequencia de una nueva distribucion de razas de familia, clasificacion que el Sr. Lathan ha creido conveniente hacer para evitar todo peligro posible de incesto.

Hacemos presente que uno de estos padres fue puesto en exhicion la primavera pasada y fue clasificado por los jueces mas competentes de ser un animal de una perfecion maravillosa. Han servido unicamente algunas ovejas escogidas y son modelo de vigor y solidez.

Los carneros estarán a la vista en casa de los rematadores desde el Lunes 10 de Agosto. 26,12p,a7

SPOONER'S ALLEVIATOR:
AN
INFALLIBLE CURE
FOR RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, &c.

Having been for years a great sufferer from Neuralgic Affections of the Head, I tried, but without any permanent success, the Prescriptions of some of the first Surgeons of the day, and all the Medicines recommended by Advertisors. At last, driven almost to despair, I tried everything that I thought would alleviate the pain, and, after various scientific experiments, succeeded in discovering a safe, speedy, and effectual cure, since which time [two years ago] I have never had a repetition or even symptom of the complaint.

I have constantly prescribed it for Tic-Douloreux, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, and every description of Rheumatic Affections, and have never yet known it to fail, and have moreover the testimony of numerous eminent Medical Practitioners as to its infallible, astounding, and non-injurious cure for the above diseases.

A Bottle of this invaluable Medicine—price, 2—can be had at the undernamed Address, with full directions for use.

The following is one of the numerous Testimonials received:—

"Belgravia House, Jersey,
Sept. 10, 1867.

"DEAR SIR,—I have great pleasure in giving you the Testimonial you require, as I consider your Medicine the grandest cure I ever met with for all Rheumatic Affections. Since curing my wife, I have oftentimes prescribed it for severe cases of Neuralgia and Lumbago, and have never yet known it to fail.—Yours sincerely,

"C. R. HUXLEY, M.R.C.S.L.

THE ACME OF MEDICAL SCIENCE
IS ACHIEVED IN THE WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF NEW MEDICAL PRINCIPLES IN

DR. RADWAY'S
PERFECT PURGATIVE PILLS
COATED WITH SWEET GUM.

1st Principle—A vegetable substitute for Calomel or Mercury is secured.
2d. A cathartic that cleanses the alimentary Canal and its neighboring Viscera as thoroughly as Lobelia does the stomach.
3d. Functional Harmony is secured to the secreting vessels of all the organs and glands in the system.
4th. Purification and equalization of the circulation of the blood.
5th. The properties of these Pills communicate a nutritious principle to the blood and reparative secretions
6th. A great want is supplied in their soothing, healing and expulsive power in cases of intestinal ulceration, as in Eruptive Fevers, where a cure depends upon free evacuations.
7th. The aged and persons suffering from paralysis of the bowels, by the use of one pill per day, secures regularity.
Persons suffering with any disturbance of the secretary organs, or that have difficulty in discharging the contents of the bowels, or that are in the habit of taking Pills or opening medicines, should try one box of these truly excellent Pills. The happiness of their effects on the system, and the satisfactory evidence one box will give you of their wonderful curative powers, will convince you that your faith and trust in them will become firmly established.

RADWAY'S
REGULATING PILLS.
A newly discovered principle in vegetable medication is securred in Radway's Regulating Pill, that places them far in advance of all other Purgative or Cathartic, Aparient or Sedative, and Anti-Bilious Medicine. They are the only vegetable substitute for Calomel or mercury known; the only Medicine that, during their process of purging, imparts nutriment to the debilitated system, and strengh, vigor and purity to the blood, and impaired secretions; the only purgative that will cleanse the Alimentary Canal and obstructed intestine as quickly and thoroughly, without weakening or nauseating the patient, as Lobelia (the most active and thorough emetic of the herbist) will the stomach, and the only purgative at present known safe to administer in case of Small Pox, Yellow Fever, Erysipelas, and other Malignant Fevers, that inflame and ulcerate the mucuous membranes of the Bowels, Stomach, &c.

THE PROPERTIES OF
DR. RADWAY'S PILLS.
They equalize the circulation, Purify the Blood, and Purge Corrupt and Acrimonious Humors, and retained deposits from the system in six hours.
AS A CATHARTIC, the increase, when suspended, the peroitaltic movement of the bowels, and promote a quick evacuation of its contents. Their influence is extended throughout the system, purging the retained deposits in the stomach, into the duodenum, stimulating the secretory, ducts of the pancreas and liver, in the promotion and increase of the flow of bile and pancreatic fluids.
PURGATIVES of common aloes exert their action on the colon and rectum by irritation of the mucuos membrane, without influencing the liver or its secretions. Such cathartics are unsafe in pills for general use. The common Cathartic Pills, that induce drastic liquid discharges, should never be given in cases of inflammation, or when there is ulceration of the intestinal canal.
THE APERIENT and mild LAXITIVE properties of RADWAY'S PILLS are the best safeguard in these disorders, and in all cases of eruptions and malignant fevers their balsamic, healing and sothing properties protect the coats of the alimentary passage against the irritant and acrid humors of the fauces.
THE NUTRITIOUS AND TONIC properties of these Pills are of great service in depleting fevers and uterine discharges, likewise as a dinner pill, to increase the appetite and promote digestion.
THEIR SEDATIVE properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach and bowels, either from inflamation, colic, flatulence, wind, cramps, &c.
THEIR COUNTER IRRITANT influence extends threughout the system where there is inflamation, congestion or irritation, stimulating the blood and nervous fluids in the congested vessels, and equalizing its circulation. The principle of Counter irritations is generally applied to extrenal remedies. Its application, internally, in the form of a purgative medicine, exemplified in Radway's Pills, has proved a wonderful curative principle, readily withdrawing from the blood and fluids their acrid and irritating humors.
AS DIAPHORETICS OR SUDORIFICS they stimulate the secretions of the skin, induce exhalation of obstructed perspiration.
THEIR DIURETIC properties act on the kidneys, correcting and regulating the flow of urine.
THEIR ANTI-BILIOUS properties stimulate the liver in the secretion of bile, and its discharge thorogh the biliary ducts. In all cases of Headache, Jaundice, Bilious Attacks, Saffrom-colored Sking, Impaired Digestion, caused by the overflow of bile and its mixing with the blood, these pills, in doses four to six, will quickly regulate the action of the liver and free the patiedt from these difficulties. One or two of Radway's Pills taken daily, by those subject to bilious pains and torpidity of the liver, will keep the system regular and insure healthy digestion.
In case where there is severe inflamation, paralysis of the bowels, and a speedy discharge of their contents required, grind six of the pills to a powder and take in some preserves or water. In half an hour the pills, given in this way, will generally operate. The dose can be repeated, if necessary, in two hours. We have known the pills, given in this form, to open the bowels when Croton Oil, Elaterium, Podophyllum 'Mendrake' have failed. It is seldon that a second dose will be required in these cases of Intestinal Obstructions.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.
101--Cangallo--103.
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.
The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.
The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.
The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.
Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.
P.P. MAUA & Co.,
M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.
First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.
Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p.%) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.
Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.
Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

PENEDO'S VEGETABLE SYRUP,
THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY
OF

HAS CURED THOUSANDS!

FAREWELL, A LONG FAREWELL, to Consumption, Affections of the Chest, Hooping-Cough, Chronic Bronchitis, and Asthma.
All sufferers from these dangerous Diseases will experience immediate relief even in the most desperate cases.
Several eminent Members of the Medical Profession, whose testimony may be relied upon with the most perfect confidence, have obtained the most satisfactory results in cases of Consumption by the use of this valuable specific—in fact,
THE SYSTEM OF THE PATIENT UNDERGOES A COMPLETE TRANSFORMATION.
Professor PENEDO feels assured that the above-mentioned discovery will always maintain a vast superiority over all other Preparations, as it is generally known that these invariably contain a large quantity of mineral matter, which is most hurtful to the human frame.
This SYRUP is prepared solely from one of those valuable vegetable productions for which the surrounding country of the Brazils is so justly famed.
The annexed Testimonial has been received, and is one of many thousands, testifying to the medicinal virtues of Penedo's Syrup:—
"Professor J. A. PENEDO.
"HONORED SIR,—In answer to your Correspondence, allow me to inform you that my Lady has used the Preparation, called "Penedo's Syrup," and by its assistance, she was in an incredibly short time completely cured of the Pulmonic Disease from which she was suffering.
"Allow me to assure you that you have my best wishes for your future success, and I shall be happy if you will make whatever use of this letter that you may think proper.
"Sincerely yours,
